PREAMBLE

This electoral code regulates the elections of the Football Kenya Federation (FKF) and is designed to ensure transparency and fairness in the FKF electoral process. It is crafted to ensure that the structure of FKF finally ascends from 20 branches to 48 counties as agreed in the FKF constitution ratified by the FKF General Assembly on 18 November 2017 (the FKF constitution). It anticipates that after the 2019 / 2020 elections football administration shall be aligned to the Kenyan governance structures.

This electoral code must be read and fulfilled alongside the FKF constitution, including its article 89 which makes a provision for transition and notes that all relevant electoral provisions shall come into effect in the 2019 / 2020 elections.

SECTION ONE: GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. Applicable Principles and obligations

- a) Elections for the offices of FKF President and Deputy President, members of the National Executive Committee, County Officials and Sub-county officials are governed by the provisions of the FKF constitution and this electoral code.
- b) Notwithstanding, the relevant principles of the FIFA Statutes and Regulations regarding elections, alongside fundamental principles of democracy, separation of powers, transparency, openness and the obligation to avoid situations of conflicts of interest, shall be respected throughout the entire electoral process.
- c) Candidatures and electoral campaigns shall be carried out by the candidates in a fair and reputable manner and more generally, in a spirit of respect for fundamental ethical principles and FIFA regulations.
- d) Candidates shall conduct all campaigns with dignity and moderation and with respect for the other candidates, for FKF itself and its members.
- e) Candidates shall refrain from carrying out any electoral campaigning prior to the start of the electoral period, as defined by the Electoral Board in line with the provisions of the FKF constitution. Electoral campaigning shall be understood, for the purposes of this electoral code, as all the activities undertaken by candidates or those working for them with the aim of canvassing for votes.
- f) Any violation of this electoral code shall be dealt with by the Electoral Board and the FKF Appeals Committee, in accordance with the FKF constitution, this electoral code and the FKF Disciplinary code as the case may be.
- g) Elections shall be conducted first at the County level, then the National level and finally, at the sub-county level as per article 27 (5) of the FKF constitution.
- h) The office holders of the FKF shall continue to exercise their functions until the conclusion of the electoral process.
- i) Any electoral rules and guidelines shall be made available by the FKF on its website in a clear and unambiguous manner in line with deadlines of the electoral period.
- j) Any undue influence from third parties in the electoral process shall not be permitted. The FKF shall immediately inform FIFA and CAF of any undue influence from third parties in the electoral process.

2. Scope of Application

- a) This electoral code shall apply to all persons who present themselves as candidates for the elective FKF positions at the Sub-County level, the County level and the National Level.

- b) This electoral code shall equally apply to all persons, irrespective of whether they have been proposed as a candidate in accordance with this electoral code; declare themselves to be candidates or potential candidates for any of the elective positions of FKF. If a person engages in campaigns or similar activities that give the appearance that he is a candidate, the Electoral Board, or if the members of the Electoral Board have not yet been elected by the General Assembly, the FKF Secretary General shall give him a deadline of ten days to formally state, in writing, his intention of becoming a candidate in the forthcoming FKF elections. If the person responds in the affirmative, the person concerned will be subject to this electoral code from the time of the relevant declaration onwards.

Notwithstanding this, in order to be eligible for admission as a candidate, the individual concerned must be proposed as a candidate in accordance with this electoral code and the FKF constitution.

- c) All candidates shall always acknowledge and submit themselves to the FKF electoral regulations.

- d) From the moment this electoral code apply to a particular candidate, he/she shall also be subject to the FKF constitution as well as all other relevant FKF and FIFA regulations.

SECTION TWO: CALLING THE ELECTIONS

1. Implementation of the Call

- a) FKF elections shall be called by the FKF National Executive Committee in accordance to the FKF constitution.
- b) The FKF election shall take place at the FKF General Assembly called by the FKF National Executive Committee for the purpose of elections.
- c) The FKF National Executive Committee shall decide on the place and time of the elections accordingly to the electoral period and the FKF constitution.
- d) For county elections, the Electoral board shall factor the same in the electoral calendar and notice shall be given by the General Secretary for each county published on the FKF website and sent to the designated emails of each county specifying the place, date, time and the contestants for each position in each county.

2. Content of the Call

1. The call for elections shall contain, at a minimum, the following;
 - a) Agenda of the elective FKF General Assembly.
 - b) Names of the members of the Electoral Board.
 - c) The Electoral period shall last for a period of not more than 60 days.
 - d) The Electoral calendar, which shall respect the deadlines established in the FKF constitution and the Electoral Code

SECTION THREE: THE ELECTORAL BOARD

1. Establishment and Composition

- a) For an appropriate period of time in the context of the FKF Elections, the FKF National Executive Committee shall set up an Electoral board as per Article 39 (1)(P) and Article 61 of the FKF constitution and within FIFA electoral principles. The members of the Electoral board shall be proposed by the FKF National Executive Committee at the FKF General Assembly preceding the elective general assembly for ratification. The FKF National Executive Committee shall also propose to the FKF General Assembly for ratification three substitutes. The mandates of the members of the Electoral board as well as the three substitutes shall last for four years. They shall not serve for more than two terms of office, whether consecutive or not.
- b) The Electoral board shall be composed of a Chairperson, a secretary and at least three (3) other members. The Electoral Board shall agree on a schedule of their meetings. The Chairperson or the Secretary of the Electoral Board shall be qualified to practice law. The members of the Electoral Board shall act in good faith at all times and observe the utmost impartiality when carrying out their duties.
- c) The FKF General Secretary may attend the meetings of the Electoral Board in an advisory capacity but with no vote.
- d) If a member of the Electoral Board is or becomes a candidate for any elective FKF position, he/she shall immediately become ineligible or cease in his/her function respectively as a member of the Electoral Board and shall be replaced by one of the three substitutes.
- e) If a member of the Electoral Board is prevented from performing his/her duties due to conflict of interest or for any other reason, he/she shall be replaced by one of the three substitutes.

- f) In the event the Chairperson of the Electoral Board becomes unavailable for any reason, the other members of the Electoral Board shall appoint a new Chairperson amongst themselves.
- g) The headquarters of the Electoral Board shall be the same as the FKF headquarters, unless the Electoral Board itself decides otherwise.
- h) The FKF general secretariat shall, whenever required by the Electoral Board, assist and carry out administrative tasks for the Electoral Board.

2. Duties

- 1. In addition to its role of supervising the electoral process, the Electoral Board's duties shall also include, in particular;
 - a) Supervising the administrative process relating to the FKF elections and monitoring compliance with this electoral code as well as other electoral rules and guidelines issued by FKF, as required in the performance of its duties.
 - b) Ensuring the correct application of the FKF constitution, regulations and provisions, as well as the contents of this electoral code, in matters relating to the electoral process.
 - c) Issuing instructions for the application of this electoral code as necessary before and during the entire electoral process, including during the elections themselves.
 - d) Admitting and declaring candidatures. In this regard, the Electoral Board shall assess whether a candidate for any FKF elective position meets the eligibility criteria provided for in the present electoral code and the FKF constitution.

- e) Any other tasks that may be required in the course of its duties or by the FKF constitution and regulations.
- f) The Electoral Board may appoint a body, an institution or an individual (s) to conduct elections at each of the 48 counties and at national level.
- g) The Electoral Board may decide to also supervise sub-county elections by requesting one or more of its members to carry such task. In the event that no member(s) of the Electoral Board are available to supervise these elections, such task may be entrusted to the FKF General Secretariat.
- h) The Electoral Board shall establish an electoral calendar and strictly adhere to the activities and timelines outlined therein.

3. Supervisory Duties

- a) In view of its close and direct knowledge of the electoral process, the Electoral Board shall be obliged to notify the competent bodies of FKF in writing and in a substantiated manner of any infringements of the provisions of this electoral code that may be committed during the course of the electoral process as soon as it has direct knowledge of such infringements or is made aware of them by any of the candidates, or members of FKF.

4. Convocation and Quorum

- a) The Electoral Board shall be convened by its chairperson, and the presence of the chair and at least three other members shall constitute a quorum. Only an Electoral Board that has been duly convened shall have the authority to deliberate and pass decisions.

If the circumstances so require, deliberations and decision taking may be conducted via telephone conference, video conference, email, or any other similar method.

- b) The Electoral Board shall pass decisions by a majority of its members (more than 50%). The chairperson shall have the deciding vote in case of a tie.

- c) Minutes of the meetings of the Electoral Board and record of its decisions shall be recorded by the secretary of the Electoral Board and signed by himself as well as the chairperson.

5. Calculation of Deadlines.

- a) The deadlines and time frames contained in this electoral code shall be understood to refer to calendar days.
- b) All candidates shall strictly adhere to the electoral timelines as set by the Electoral Board.
- c) All applications to the board shall be submitted between 8am and 5pm on the days provided for in the Electoral calendar.
